

Premiere screening of
'ONE LAST PUSH'
THE FINAL BATTLE OF WWI?

Disability History Month Scotland Events

This animation tells the story of the disability movement from WWI to the present day, using WWI and disability artifacts and narration by local people. Our locally crafted Memory Box containing these memorabilia will be on display, along with striking photos and commentaries.

With drinks beforehand and a chance to meet the makers and discuss the film, activism, history & disability followed by music, delicious food and entertainment, what's not to like?!

Saturday 6th December 4.30-9.00pm

Come along for some, or all, of this free event – drinks by donation
Edinburgh City Chambers, 253 High Street

Book your free ticket at www.eventbrite.com -

"One Last Push - The Final Battle of WWI? Disability History Month Scotland"

Can't make that or want to see it again? How about a free screening at the Filmhouse?
Cinema 3, Saturday 13th December, 1-2pm plus Q&A session

Book your free ticket at www.eventbrite.com -

"One Last Push - The Final Battle of WWI? Filmhouse screening"

We are a very friendly group of volunteers, interested in education, activism and disability. If any of these topics appeal to you, we would really love to see you at these events.

For more information:

email us: admin@disabilityhistoryscotland.org or call us: 0131 555 9329