Miraculous Cures and Pilgrimage in Manchester

Dr Kathryn Hurlock is a Reader in History at Manchester Metropolitan University. She is an expert in both pilgrimage and historical experiences of disability. Her recent publications include Medieval Welsh Pilgrimage (2018) and Crusading and Ideas of the Holy Land (2021).

This lecture examines the practice of pilgrimage in Manchester and the North-West in the 18th and 19th centuries, showing how people sought miracle cures for a range of illnesses and impairments.

Public Talks

“UKDHM is an annual event creating a platform to focus on the history of our struggle for equality and human rights.”

To celebrate UKDHM, Manchester Metropolitan University, Manchester City Council and Manchester Central Library have worked together to organize 4 online lectures exploring the histories of disability.
