Disability Childhood and Youth

As an introduction to UKDHM 2023 on the theme of 'Disability Childhood and Youth', we will be holding a face-to-face launch of these books with Micheline Mason and several other disabled speakers to recount their experiences and the need for change. The event will also be filmed.

Launch of Exploration 2023 Disabled and Young in UK

This is a collaboration to get the creative views of young disabled people. UKDHM are looking for each contributor to express the good, the bad and the changes they would like as young disabled people. The most insightful, interesting and powerful contributions in each category will be celebrated. There will be 4 age groups. Entries can be written essays, poems, posters, artwork, films, signing, acting, audio or any combination. They will be short listed then go to a judging panel. www.ukdhm.org/exploration2023
